Happiness is a decision.
You are as happy as you decide to be.

about me

My name is Ms. Danielle Kirkland.

This is my 14th year teaching Business and Marketing courses. This is my second year at James Island Charter High School.

I was born in Columbia, South Carolina and graduated from high school Denmark, South Carolina. I have taught in Norfolk, Virginia – Atlanta, GA – and Clarksville, TN prior to joining the JI Trojan family.

my favorites

Color: Pink

Food: Taco

Drink: Coffee

Movie: Spiderman

Season: Spring

Animal: Dog

Holiday: Christmas

Why I teach?

I teach business because we are all consumers and need to understand basic business concepts. Students that may not want to pursue a career in business or marketing will become wise consumers and make good decisions.

my education

I earned my bachelors degree from Norfolk State University in Norfolk, Virginia. I knew I wanted to be a teacher so my major was Business Education.

I began my 1st teaching job before I graduated from college and it's been a nonstop adventure!

I later decided to get a Masters Degree in Educational Technology from Walden University.
